HP is not mine.

She held it in her hand, squeezing it, and rolling it in all the right places.

"Hermione, could you please hurry up?" Severus asked as he looked at her. Her chocolate brown eyes met his obsidian ones, and he saw a flicker of hurt cross her face.

"I'm sorry you just take so long. It's not a science, you just have to feel it and know what is right." She continued to squeeze.

"Be careful." The words had barely left his mouth before her hand squeezed the peach too hard and its juices spilled out all over her hand.

"Well, that was interesting, hmmmmm, I wonder..." she said as her eyes drifted down to his slowly tenting pants.
