Change

Chapter 1 of 1

Thoughts about life.

Days are flying quickly by

People changing before my eye.

I know I've got to be strong

As they will all be gone.

I'll be left on my own

Just an empty shell of flesh and bone.

Lacking a purpose to be here

Without the people I love near.

I hope one day that they'll come back

Bringing along the love and comfort that I lack.
