Summer

Chapter 1 of 1 Thoughts when sitting by the sea.

Watching clouds drift along Listening to our favourite song. Holding hands by the sea Flying high feeling free. The softness of sand beneath your toes Your smiling face full of happiness it glows. Sleeping under the stars at night Embracing tightly beneath the moonlight. Soon these perfect days will have to end No more lazy afternoons spent with you my friend. We'll just have to wait till next year

Before you know it summer will be here.
