Chapter 1 of 1

An incident in the shower.

HP is not mine.

Her loud intake of breath was the only indicator that something was terribly wrong. She bent over in the shower grabbing at the drain hoping that it wasn't gone forever. She heard the curtain pull back and her husband say, "Now this is an interesting position."

She turned and looked at him guiltily. "I dropped my ring," she said as tears mingled with the stream of the shower. He chuckled and she glared at his insensitivity.

"I just find it entertaining that you always forget about the fact that you are a witch.Accio Wedding Ring." A few seconds later, a simple gold band landed in his hand. He grabbed her hand and placed the ring on her ring finger as he had all those years ago.

"Now let's discuss this shower," he said as he pulled her toward him.

So, when I first wrote this, I had Severus in mind, but when I finished it, I realized that it was rather ambiguous and the guy could be anyone. So I put it under Severus, but you can imagine whichever guy strokes your fancy.
