"We shall be going out today to pick potion ingredients," Snape said to his apprentice Hermione, "and I expect sensible footwear from you," he added meaningfully.

"Most of my footwear is, sir," Hermione said, bemused.

Snape leaned forward, his eyes narrowed.

"Oh? What about those... boots I saw you wearing the other day?"

Hermione repressed a smile.

"They're sensible," she said mildly.

"Dragonhide, Miss Granger?"

"Good, sensible protection."

"Scarlet dragonhide?"

"It's a Gryffindor colour, sir."

"Scarlet dragonhide with those heels?"

"The heels aren't that big. Besides, they're stacked," Hermione added.

She was going to drive him insane, Snape thought darkly.
