Snape had prepared himself before his mission. A glamour placed upon him ensured that no one would see him as Severus Snape when they looked his way.

Still, one could not be too careful.

His eyes were narrowed as he approached and entered the bookshop, but no one noticed him.

A Seeking charm was quickly uttered, and then his body was gently urged to approach a certain shelf.

An expression of triumph mixed with hope was on his face as he scanned the shelf and saw the ideal book -Wonderful Ways to Woo your Witch!

Professor Granger, he thought. Hermione.
