Lucius and Severus must use a non-wizard device after losing a bet to Hermione.

Chapter 1 of 1

Lucius and Severus must use a non-wizard device after losing a bet to Hermione.

"What's this messy thing?"

Hermione summoned her fortitude. "It's a condom, a lubricated condom."

"A what?"

"It prevents sexually transmitted disease," she said.

"I don't have a sexually transmitted disease," said Severus.

"And it helps when the girl is dry," she said.

"No witch has ever stayed dry around me," said Lucius.

"Be that as it may," said Hermione, "my team won and your team lost. The bet was I would try a pure-wizard thing if I lost and you would try a non-wizard thing if you lost."

"But this is outrageous."

"And insulting."

"You made a bet, gentlemen," said Hermione. "And one of the conditions was photographic evidence of its use."

Hermione waited for two wizards to get the hint. Men!

"Wouldn't you like a sandwich before you leave?" she had asked them, waving her camera. This was frustration with a capital F, and it wasn't frustration she wanted to capitalize.

Several weeks later, Severus was back. Hermione looked at the first photo and gave a start.

"Did you think she was a saint?" asked Severus.

#1 The couple were at dinner, and the girl was obviously telling Severus about her life and hard times.

#2 The couple were at a museum, and halfway through, the girl took Severus's arm.

#3 The girl was shaking her head no and backing against the wall and protesting that she was married.

#4 The girl had her arms wrapped around a wizard she could no longer resist; her body was weaving; her lips found his.

#5 The professor had whipped the girl over to the edge of the bed where she lay face down and looking surprised that her skirt was up, her knickers were down, and another man was pushing into her newly married twat. Hermione hadn't realized that her friend had such a cute, round ass. By the time the man was halfway in, her friend's ass had started to wiggle.

#6 The next photo merely showed a girl having her first unfaithful orgasm.

#7 Severus held the married girl as she floated in ecstasy and accepted what had happened.

#8 Hermione was thinking Severus was not keeping the agreement when he pulled out and put the lubricated condom over his cock. From the look on the girl's face, he must have placed his cock at the entrance to her ass. She was open-mouthed and squirming in protest. The professor eased into another man's wife. She was open-mouthed and squirming.

#9 Hermione watched her friend undulate with new-found pleasure as Severus inched deeper into her.

#10 She was sweating and wiggling. She was looking back at her seducer and smiling. She was yelling and clawing the quilt with her fingers. He was feeling strong muscles squeeze his cock.

#11 The girl's pretty face, flushed after sex, the girl's pretty ass, soft after sex, and the girl's pretty pucker, relaxed after sex, were feeding his building tension.

#12 Severus Snape was having an indescribable moment in Ginny Potter.

It was another week before Lucius appeared.

"Have you given up?" Hermione asked Lucius hopefully. Perhaps his eyes would finally open.

He merely handed her the packet of photos.

#1 Lucius and a mature lady were in a bookstore with the lady talking animatedly and then stopping after having asked a question. Lucius nodded agreement. They must have agreed to go someplace for tea.

#2 They were in the lady's living room, sitting on the couch and having tea and a friendly argument. The lady was comfortable, and her face was alive with the discovery of an intelligent male who would talk to her.

#3 The mature lady was moving closer to Lucius; his arm was around her; she was snuggling and then in his lap; she was relaxing as he stroked her hair. Her eyes were bright; she had not known she would ever find someone.

#4 They were in her bedroom, and the lady was talking seriously to the man, probably explaining that she hadn't done anything for years. The lady smiled when Lucius produced the lubricated condom.

#5 The lady was in full court press, clutching him and giving him the big sloppy kisses of a woman who has someone she wants.

#6 Her mouth was all over his cock, which was becoming harder by the second. She had the condom on him. She lay back with her legs wide.

#7 Hermione watched Lucius have the supreme moment of entering a woman for the first time.

#8 The lady was in full copulation with her arms and legs wrapped around her mate. Hermione did not realize anyone could couple so enthusiastically. The lady's face began to contort with the piercing pleasure, and Hermione briefly wished she was a wizard and could make a woman look that beautiful. Hermione was fascinated by the lady's clenching fingers and thighs. Hermione wished she was smiling helplessly as a cock took her.

#9 Hermione saw Lucius savor the full fleshy orgasm of the woman. Hermione wondered if it had been like a string of firecrackers or if it had been slow, intense clenches or if it had been a gentle, satisfying ripple. From the way the woman had gripped her lover, Hermione decided that Lucius had experienced strong and rapid spasms.

#10 Hermione watched the lady bond with her lover as Lucius reassured her and told her she was wonderful. He would be back; this was not a one-night stand.

#11 Hermione watched Lucius take his last, deep, satisfying plunges and then look at the camera triumphantly as his cock went off in his loving companion.

#12 It was sometime later. The two had showered and were now in bed for the night with the woman cuddling Lucius. Hermione watched her mother fall asleep in the arms of the wizard whose mistress she now was.

The prompt is from sunny33: Hermione has challenged Severus and Lucius to a competition. Who can do the most Mugglish activity and succeed? Have fun!

PS: Modified to using a non-wizard device of Hermione's choosing.
