My Dear Best Friend

Chapter 1 of 1

I'm dedicating this poem to casico707, and, casico, I hope you like it. ^_^ No offenses intended to anyone.

You don't see the real me
You don't see my hidden life
You don't know what goes on
When you're not around
My dear best friend
Do you still know who I am
You haven't seen my prayers
You haven't heard my silent wishes
You don't know what goes on in my life
Do you even remember the scars on my arms
My dear best friend
Do you still know who I am
My vampire heart is hidden
You know I can't let go
I'm cryin' poison tears
For what you think you know
My dear best friend

Do you still know who I am
