If I Asked You To

Chapter 1 of 1

Another poem that I wrote in general wellness and algebra II. Hope ya?ll like it.

Would you go out with me
if I asked you today?
Would you sit here with me
if I asked you to stay?
Would you be my friend
if I asked you to care?
Could I cry on your shoulder
if I asked you to be there?
Would you even think of me
if I was dead and gone?
What would you think
if you heard my song?
Would you kiss me
if I asked you to?
Would you lie to me
if I asked for the truth?
Would this make sense to you

if you ever saw it?

Would you like it

if I asked you to?
