Chapter 1 of 1

Do you fear the darkness?

Night

In the night

The shadows do come

In the night

The darkness has won

With nowhere to hide

A wound unhealed opens wide

And the creatures come to stare.

Under the stars

A wind shills the skin

Under the stars

An ache burns within

Too proud to fear

Emptiness creeps near

And a heart is gone away.

Up in the sky

A cloud will form

Up in the sky

An angel battles the storm

Healing arms descend

The moonlight your friend

Pain never comes to stay.
