Chapter 1 of 1

The Weasley brothers have a new product line in their shop.

Thanks to Lyn_F for betaing this for me.

"I can't believe you two are actually doing this," Hermione said with a roll of her eyes. "What is your mother going to say?"

"Ah, how quickly they forget," Fred said, putting his hand over his heart dramatically. "My mother is so happy I'm not really dead that she doesn't really care what I do."

"So, what you're saying is that you're not going to tell her, and you're going to keep it from her," Hermione said, shaking her head.

"Now you're getting it," George replied with a grin. "Course, we couldn't very well sell them in our Diagon Alley store or our store in Hogsmeade. This isn't exactly for kids to see..."

"So we're starting up a shop in Knockturn Alley," Fred finished.

"Who do you think is going to buy this sort of thing?" Hermione asked, looking at the distasteful display in front of her. "Do you really think guys are this desperate?"

"Sure as hell beats taking other measures. And it's not just for the blokes. There's something for the ladies too. All shapes and sizes for her pleasure." George gestured to the other end of the table.

"I know that Ron is often away on business, isn't he? Who satisfies your needs then?" Fred asked with a knowing grin.

"Oh, all right," Hermione said, plunking down some coins. "But you better not say anything to him."

"Not a word," Fred replied with a grin.

Hermione took the package and went home. It just so happened that Ron was away on an Auror job right then, and she was more than eager to get started using the item. Several minutes later, she was moaning with pleasure, thanks to the item she had just bought, her eyes closed in pure ecstasy.

When she was finished, she looked fondly at the item that had just caused her so much pleasure. Now she could have what she wanted anytime, day or night, thanks to the Weasleys' Wizard Wheezes' newest product...

The Instant Chocolate Maker

Just insert at your leisure cocoa beans, and the machine does the rest!

For Christmas she'd buy Ron the item made just for him – a Firewhiskey-making machine.

For BrenaMarie

The prompt was:

During chat Nom de Plume said "insert at your leisure."

I think this is hilarious. Someone find a way to use this quote.

Bonus points for if it's used in a dirty way.
