Defining Love?

Chapter 1 of 1

How do you define love? I've been told to define love so here goes.

Love.

What is love?

Hmm, could we say love is fun?

Or interesting, or exciting?

I think love is unique.

It is different in every person and every situation.

I can only imagine what love could be,

I mean,

I've never been in love,

So it's a bit of a tough question.

Defining love in my opinion would be...

Great,

Love is fearsome,

Love is respect, honor and serenity.

If I were in love,

School wouldn't matter,

For I would be in Lalala land all the time

Just me and my prince in shining armour.

Now that is love.
