Death Eater Initiation

Chapter 1 of 1

We take a look into Severus Snape's initiation into becoming a Death Eater, seen through the eyes of Narcissa Black.

Tonight shall be the night when we meet,
Tonight shall be the night when we dance,
Tonight is the night when we will die,
I hear the doors open,
Swiftly people walk in,
I see your face,
It is dark, and I know you are hiding how you feel,
You know our master will kill tonight,
Coming to us in the form of a child,
It is the victim you are supposed to kill,
It's your initiation sacrifice,
Your face dark not hesitating,
Raising your wand you say the deadly words,
That will ensure your position as a Death Eater,
Tonight is the night where positions are secured,
Tonight is the night where blood is spilled,
And cloaked by darkness we bid our leave,

And escape the madman's den.
