How You Influenced Me

Chapter 1 of 1

another poem...

Your kindness taught me to care
Your distance taught me to be there
Your strengths taught me not to fear
Your weaknesses taught me to be stronger
Your tears taught me not to get hurt
Your laughter taught me to be happy
Your problems taught me to think carefully
Your solutions taught me to never stop trying
Your loves taught me nothin' lasts
Your hates taught me to keep an open mind
Do you know how you influenced me
As I watched you every day
I'm glad I learned
But sorry you never did
Even after making the same mistakes
Every day of your life
