Chapter 1 of 1

Muggles have Margaritaville, but the Wizarding World has Coffeeville waiting for premieres!

Dressed in my house robes
Using our crystal globes
All of those Gryffindors cower with fear
Practicing my Imperious
On good old Sirius
Smell those potions they're beginning to boil
Chorus:
Staying' awake again in Buffett's Coffeeville,
Waiting' for that last movie to start
Some people say that Snape's the person to blameeeeeee
But we know,
that he's good at heart!
Drank at the Hogs Head
Woke up feeling half dead
Nothing to show but a Death Eater tattoo
But it's a real beauty
A Voldemort cutie

How it got here I haven't a clue

Chorus:

Staying' awake again in Buffett's Coffeeville,

Waiting' for that last movie to start

Some people say that Snape's the person to blameeeee

But we know,

that he's good at heart!

I camped here all evening

No intention of leaving

Till the last movie I got to see

And we're waiting for midnight

We hope it was done right

That last lone movie we all want to see

Staying' awake again in Buffett's Coffeeville,

Waiting' for that last movie to start

Some people say that Snape's the person to blameeeee

But we know,

that he's good at heart!

Yes and some people say that Snape's the person to blameeeee

But we know,

that he's good at heart!
