Dear Prince

I would appreciate suggestions on how to ask someone out.

Dear Reserved Potions Scholar

You obviously enjoy Potions; why don't you invite him to help you collect ingredients?

Dear Prince

I'm a seventh-year student at Hogwarts. A boy I really, really like has invited me to meet him in the Forbidden Forest to gather Potions ingredients on Tuesday night. The thing is, there's a bit of history between us (I nearly killed him once), and he hates my friends. I'm not sure whether I should go.

Help, please.

Dear Eager But Nervous

Sometimes you just have to take a chance. But I suggest you keep your wand handy.

Dear Prince

I went. He was fine. We did gather ingredients, but then... Anyway, we had loads of fun. Thanks for your advice.

Lovely to hear, dear. One favour. Please remind Severus to owl his mother more often.

A/N: This was written for the eighth week of the snoopin_idws on LiveJournal. It had to be 200 words exactly, and the prompts were the Forbidden Forest and 'eager'. Thanks to quaffswinegaily for the look over.
