Severus walked in the rain, his thin shoulders hunched. He could still see in his mind the image of Lily – his Lily – holding hands with Potter. There was rain on his face, not tears.

~~~

Professor Snape walked out into the rain with a beaker, his face dispassionate. Rain water was useful in potions.

~~~

Severus and Hermione were out walking when it started raining. Hermione quickly cast a rain-shielding spell.

"Some rain got on you," he murmured. "We'll have to go home so you can get dry."

Hermione smiled. "And you'll do the drying, hmm?"

Severus laughed.
