Disclaimer: I could only wish to own such well-bred characters and such lovely stationery.

Dear Great-Aunt Andromeda,

Thank you for the handsome desk set and exercise books. As you can see, I am already putting the Any Color Ink and quill to good use. I think the ink looks well in green, don't you? I have never used sealing wax before but I quite like the polished look it gives to Grandmother's and Father's letters. Please do not think that I disliked the 'M' seal with the set; Father thought it would be well to make it specific to me, so he added the stars of the constellation Scorpio to the background.

Your nephew,

Scorpius

(written on the outside of the scroll) Please excuse the appearance of my seal, as sealing wax is proving trickier than it looks.
