Body Language

I feel the bed dip down beside me. I smile as his hand brushes against my side.

"Hermione," he whispers my name softly.

"Severus," I reply, wrapping my arms around his thin frame. "How was your day?" I know he's been having difficulty with his seventh years.

"I'd rather not talk about the students."

I smile. "What would you like to talk about then?"

Severus rolls over and hovers above me. "Nothing," he says before pressing his lips against mine.

I have a feeling we won't be doing much talking tonight. I think we'll be communicating solely through body language.
