Because

Chapter 1 of 1

Ummm... yeah... poem-ness... :yawn:: tired...

Because

The reason I love you

The reason we try

The reason, day after day

You break my heart

And I always come back

Because

The reason I cry in your arms

The reason I want you

The reason, night after night

Your hands are on me

And I love it

Because

The reason I can't let you go

The reason I forgive you

The reason I'm not enough

The reason it has to end

The reason we try anyways
Just because it's the only thing that works
