Strong Love

STRONG LOVE

My love is strong even though you think it is wrong.

I see the hesitance in your eyes, and I know it will demise.

You say you don't feel the same as me, but how can that be.

You held em once before, but you say you've closed that door.

I see your fear, I hope it disappears.

Your eyes eyes are shining bright and now I see it is not from fright.

You lean in and I know you will mend my heart that you once broke apart.

Our love is strong, and together we belong.
