Hate Me

Chapter 1 of 1

Right boredom... Yeah and one or two swears...

Hate me today

Hate me tomorrow

Hate me with a passion

Hate me because you're so fucking sad you can't stand yourself

Hate me so you can feel better about yourself

Hate me to make your life less complex

Hate me to make you feel better

Hate me for not being good enough for you

Hate me for not believing in you

Hate me for not spending more time with you

Hate me because you once loved me

Hate me to fill the emptiness inside you

Hate me because you have nothing better to do

Hate me for not being there for you

Hate me for ruining your life

Hate me in ways,

yeah ways that only you understand

Hate me for not helping you in rough times

Hate me for ignoring you when you were trying to make me understand

Hate me for once loving you

Hate me for not pleasing you the way you wanted me to Hate me for being upset

Hate me for everything I didn't do right

Hate me for saying 'I love you' more than once

Hate me today

Hate me tomorrow

Hate me with a passion

Hate me when you held me in your arms

Hate me for hugging you

Hate me for kissing you

Hate me for wanting to see you

Hate me for wanting to be with you
