

City Soul

by from_n_to_h

Wrote it on the greyhound when I was coming home. The "Sound's Cold" line is a double reference to both the word sound and to a body of water. Can you guess where I live?

City Soul

Chapter 1 of 1

Wrote it on the greyhound when I was coming home. The "Sound's Cold" line is a double reference to both the word sound and to a body of water. Can you guess where I live?

No means no

Yes means yes

Threw life in a suitcase and headed west

Chased the clouds

'Till I met the water

Sound's cold, No Swimming.

Didn't know anyone

In the crowded new city

But I have never felt

Less alone, More connected.

My soul screams with joy

My heart dances with delight

Grew up out of phase,

Out of place.

23 years journey

Now I belong

Not owned by any group

But bonded to my city.

Got Rain? I love the rain.