Dear Diary,

Hello! My name is Susannah, but everyone calls me Susie. Mummy and Daddy got me lots of presents for Christmas, and Daddy got you for me! He said that I talk too much, and that I should do other things (like write) for a change. Do I talk too much? I don't think so. My cat never complains.

My cat's name is Glinda, from my favorite movie ever! It's called The Wizard of Oz, and Mummy said she liked it when she was little. Daddy laughs when Mum watches it with me. And he makes fun of it, too.

Daddy is funny. Mum says he has an ac-er-bic wit, but I don't know what that means. Daddy says I'm like Mum. I love my Mum. But I'm like my Daddy too. I have black hair.

Christmas was sooo much fun!! We went to the Burrow and saw Aunt Molly and Uncle Arthur and all of my family! Uncle Fred and Uncle George brought toys from their store for everybody! And Aunt Ginny and Uncle Harry have a new baby! He's really fat and rolls around on the floor a lot. His name is James, but I call him fatty.

Mummy got really red when she opened her Christmas present from Daddy. Almost as red as Aunt Ginny's hair! She put her gift away, but when all the grown-ups were drinking stuff, I snuck downstairs and found Mum's gift. I have it here. It looks like a small book, and the front of it says Sex Cheques. I need to find a dictionary.

Love,

Susie

PS: Daddy took the book away. He says it was a grown-up book. But one of the pages fell out when he walked out the door. Sex Cheque #44: I promise to let you tie me up. I wonder what that means. Oh, and Mummy is screaming again. Daddy must be making her mad.
