I Need You

Chapter 1 of 1

A romantic little fluffy poem. Just got inspiration one night, and this is the result.

One more smile
Before your goodbye
One last chance
To be with you
Don't leave
Don't walk away
You're my life
My love
You are everything to me
You're the sweetest song that I could sing
The softest kiss I could give
The nicest gift I could bring
The warmest love I can offer
Lay here with me
Hold my hand
Forget this world
Just you and me

Together

You're the air I breathe

Like a fire needs its flames

I need you.
