I Need You

Chapter 1 of 1

A romantic little fluffy poem. Just got inspiration one night, and this is the result.

One more smile

Before your goodbye

One last chance

To be with you

Don't leave

Don't walk away

You're my life

My love

You are everything to me

You're the sweetest song that I could sing

The softest kiss I could give

The nicest gift I could bring

The warmest love I can offer

Lay here with me

Hold my hand

Forget this world

Just you and me

Together

You're the air I breathe

Like a fire needs its flames

I need you.
