Forevermore

Chapter 1 of 1

A poem written for a lover who is far away.

I want to soar on wings of love
With you by my side
Please say you will be mine
And that we will soon be together
Forevermore ...
I love you, I love you
My darling, don't ever bring me down
I have waited all my life for you
I need your love for now and
Forevermore ...
The moment I first saw you
You won my heart so completely
That it will belong to you and you alone
Forevermore ...
I could ask for no more
Than to feel your touch, taste your kiss
If you will but stay with me

Forevermore ...

And once we're together

My love, my love

Don't ever leave me

Or else I will surely crash

And my heart will be broken

Forevermore ...

I am giving my heart to you

So please always be true

And let me fly on wings of love

With you

Forevermore ...
