A/N: The Alchera Project (www.alcheraproject.com) is a writing group run by Laurie Murray. A varied group of writing prompts is posted monthly and members submit links to their creations based on the prompts. I suspect the group is on hiatus, as my latest attempts to access the site have been unsuccessful. The prompt for this haiku set is from 2004; unfortunately, I didn't copy down the prompt itself.
