Chapter 1 of 1

A very heartfelt ramble.

I love the smile you create
On the ocean of my dreams,
With each passing tide I drift closer
Towards who I am meant to be.
I love the laugh I hear,
Which you create.
It shines within, this sweetest sound
I didn't know I could make.
I love the touch I give
With each caress you allow me to display.
Raw intimacies so new,
Flesh pink from never ending affections as we lay.
I love the words crafted
By a mouth inspired from your light.
These thoughts, so genuine,
Pour quickly and take flight.
