Hold Me Now

Chapter 1 of 1

Leaving your life on hold and your loved ones behind in quatrains...

Hold Me Now

Hold me now, hold me tight
Hold me close through the night
Day light brings a heart ache
Hold me close, don't let me wake
Tomorrow, I must leave,
For what seems like eternity
Sunrise brings troubled times
Holding on to this life, saying good bye
Lying in darkness, all is calm
Silent night, won't do any harm
But dawn will come, and bring the light
Hold me close tonight
I feel the kiss of the moon
Shining soft in the room
Pale and pure is the light
Hold me close tonight

Hold me close, don't let me go

Don't let the sun rise on tomorrow.
