Cell in Azkaban

There is a cell in Azkaban

It's where Lucius stays

And it's been his home since he failed Voldemort

And it's there I hope he stays

His master is the Dark Lord

A man you do not cross

He failed to regain the prophecy

Shattered with a toss

Now the only thing a Death Eater needs

Is a Muggle and a curse

And the only time he's satisfied

Is when the Muggle's in a hearse

----- organ solo -----

Oh Master tell your Faithful

Not to do what I have done

Else they'll spend lives in sin and misery

In a cell in Azkaban

Well my face is near a Dementor

My soul it plans to drain

I'm goin' to die in Azkaban

For I failed my master again

There is a cell in Azkaban

It's where Lucius stays

And it's been his home since he failed Voldemort

And it's there I hope he stays
