

S.P.E.W. Sung to YMCA by the Village people

by JustJeanette

I don't own Harry or the song YMCA by the Village People, if I did I wouldn't have to work. This is some silliness to alleviate stress... I'd ask forgiveness as well but this time you can all blame OzRatbag2, writer extraordinaire, she started it.....

S.P.E.W. Sung to YMCA by the Village people

House-elf, there's no need to be free

I said, house-elf, we'll kill Hermione

I said, house-elf, cause she started up SPEW

There's no need to be a good elf

House-elf, there's a place we all go

I said, house-elf, if you're in the know

You can stay there, and I'm sure you will find

Many ways to be of service

It's fun to avoid the SPEW

It's fun to avoid the SPEW

We have everything for young elves to enjoy

You can head bang till it rings with joy

House-elf, are you working for free.

I said, house-elf, we'll enslave you quickly

I said, house-elf, the socks can go away

But you've got to know that one thing

No elf does it all by himself

I said, house-elf, grab a towel from the shelf

And just stay here, away from SPEW

I'm sure we can make you work today

Chorus

House-elf, I was once offered socks

I said, I was given Hermione's frocks

I felt so free that I wanted to hide

I felt the whole world was dark side

That's when Albus came up to me

And said house-elf, take the Floo up the street

There's a place there away from SPEW

They can start you working today

It's fun to avoid the SPEW

It's fun to avoid the SPEW

You can be made clean

You can cook a good meal

You can work at whatever you feel
