Sung to the tune of "We Didn't Start the Fire" by Billy Joel

A/N This is a filk to the tune of "We Didn't Start the Fire" by Billy Joel. I have tried to add commas where the pauses are (even though grammatically a few should not be there) to make it easier to sing, as it is a fairly fast song. I tried to get it in as best a chronological order as possible, so although some lines may not rhyme with the original, they rhyme with each other and still work. This was written for The Petulant Podcast Filk Challenge. Also, thanks to my beta ladyinthecloak:)
