Smoke curled from the tops of the cauldrons, filling the room with a swirling lavender mist. It crept along the tables and between the students, filling their minds with the scent of rain and honey. It danced under the desks and across the floor, clouding the mind and enlightening the senses. Beauty made solid, for they were brewing Calming Draughts. And true serenity is the most beautiful concept of all.

Severus looked up from his marking, meeting the steady gaze of Miss Granger. Sparks, invisible to the rest, passed between them. And at that moment they forgot who they were.
