Filk to "Here Comes Santa Clause"

Here comes Voldemort!
Here comes Voldemort!
Right down Hogsmeade Lane!
Bella and Lucius and all his Death Eaters
Are doing whatever he says.
People are screaming, hexes are flying;
All is scary there this night.
Hide the Mudbloods and say your prayers,
'Cause Voldemort comes tonight.
Here comes Voldemort!
Here comes Voldemort!
Right down Hogsmeade Lane!
He's got a wand that flicks out death
For those who want Potter to win.
Hear the people begging--oh woe!
What a horrible sight.
Do what he says or you'll be dead,

'Cause Voldemort comes tonight!

According to an internet source, the original song "Here Comes Santa Clause" was done by Gene Autry and Oakley Haldeman (c) 1947.
