A Father's Love

Chapter 1 of 1

How far will a father's love reach?

Many thanks go to my overworked and underappreciated beta and friend, Ladyinthecloak.

A FATHER'S LOVE

Years ago

This world you left for another life.

One of joy

With no sorrow

It became mine

through passage of time.

One of laughter

No tears hold rein

They track a face

That has known pain.

One of light

Shadows have no place

Except in this life

For one who lives

Without you

Looking down from above

You saw the need for love.

A guide through the darkness,
encompassing life.

A child left alone

Needing a starlit knight

Granted a wish

Unknown to heart.

A father's love

Knows no boundaries
