This poem is about knowing someone does care about you and is there for you.

Chapter 1 of 1

This poem is about knowing someone does care about you and is there for you.

From the tears I cry
And feeling all alone
And no one wanting
Anything to do with me
But when I see your face
Hearing you say 'I love you'
Makes me feel wanted
That feeling of feeling alone
Disappears
The tears stop
Just seeing your face
And seeing how much you love me
Makes everything better
I'll hold onto you forever
