Chapter 1 of 1

There's someone in my life who does think I'm perfect because he loves me, but I'm not.

I know I'm
Not perfect
Even if you
Say different
I know I don't always
Make the right
Decision or even
The best
With you by my side
And being with me
It's hard for me
To think clearly
I really do try
And want you to be Proud of me
I try so hard to Please you

Even if it might

Not show

Or look that way

But I really do

I'm just grateful

That you do

Believe in me
