Dear Reader,

There is really no story. We just wanted to see if we could make you look. Hahaha! The idea of Snape laughing about something (genuinely) is intriguing, though, is it not?

Why don't you write a drabble as to why he's laughing? The admins here at The Petulant Poetess would love to read it!

Keep this going! If you came here via a yahoo!group post, go reply and say how lovely the story is and second the rec! Or post on your lj about it! What fun! Don't spoil the "fun" for everyone by letting the kneazle out of the bag please!

~grin~

Have a great April Fool's Day!
