A Damsel in Need

Chapter 1 of 1

Every damsel in need should meet her knight.

For the "size matters" challenge on GrangerSnape100.

The lady was giggling and taking a lead
On tasting and toasting a kegful of mead
To her knight's cunning glory
And subtle victory.
My black knight, she said, you were splendid indeed.
You fooled everyone and made Rita feed
A sillier tale to the Wizarding breed
Than Beedle the Bard
When foolish and hard
Has ever spinned to get shagged with speed.
But now, she pursued, I'm a damsel in need.
I wish to spell open your dearest heart's lock
For, my dark prince, you rock,
You have a wonderful cock

And I gladly pronounce that size matters indeed.
