

Good or Bad, Dark or Light

by Seventh

We each have our own beliefs when it comes to whether we turn to the Dark or to the Light. Whether we choose to do Good or Bad. When we choose who we are, not just what.

Make A Choice

Chapter 1 of 1

We each have our own beliefs when it comes to whether we turn to the Dark or to the Light. Whether we choose to do Good or Bad. When we choose who we are, not just what.

A/N: Made this little poem up when I was trying to sing my cousin to sleep. He gets easily confused by what is right and what is wrong, and becomes upset when he can't make a decision. He doesn't yet understand the song, but when he does, I'm sure he'll think about it more carefully.

Good or Bad, Dark or Light

Good or bad,

Dark or light?

One shall reason,

One shall fight.

Dark beats,

Or light beats dark.

Whoever shall win

Must leave their mark.

Devilishly delighted

By an angelic act.

Which rules shall I abide by?

And by whose pact?

The passes one saintly choice

The angels cast a sin.

They cause us all to see

The neither side can win.

Which world do I live in?

Which law shall control me?

We need to learn that all we can be

Is something in between.
