Prompt:

34. AU: Lupin and Tonks aren't killed in the final battle. What does Lupin do for a living now that he's not needed in the Order any longer? (Include Teddy or not, your choice!)

AN: I think that if the Lupins had survived, they would have raised their son with lots of love in any way necessary: Tonks as an Auror and Lupin doing whatever it took--possibly helping out George since Fred passed on.
