Girls Do It Better

Chapter 1 of 1

A/N: I don't see why women couldn't pair up to dance as well, so here's one for the girls. We do it better anyway!

17. "Dancing with the Staff" Post Voldy, Dumbledore is alive and has been watching "Dancing with the Stars" on Muggle TV over X-mas hols. He decides to stage a competition at Hogwarts to celebrate the end of the war. One male and one female staff member from each House paired with one male and one female student from each house, mixed up of course in the interest of inter-House relations. Students and staff vote? Guest judges? You choose the pairings; my suggestions are of course SS/HG, but what about Trelawney and Draco (Trelawney could be newly "hot" and competitive after ditching her ditsy cover), Neville and Madam Hooch (who would lead??), Luna and Remus Lupin, or whatever you fancy.
